

CLASS OF 1811.

ABRAHAM F. POLHEMUS.

Son of Abraham and Aletta (Rapelye) Polhemus. She was daughter of Abraham Rapelye. The father married for his second wife, his cousin, Elizabeth Bogart. He died in his 80th year, May 24, 1831, having children: Anne, who married Isaac Snediker, and Abraham.

The latter married in 1811, Cornelia, daughter of Jacobus Suydam. He died in his 59th year, August 28, 1843, but his widow still occupies his estate at Hellgate. His son, John S., is a merchant of New York, and another, the Rev. Abraham Polhemus, of the Reformed Dutch Church is settled at Hopewell in Dutchess Co.

Annals of Newton p. 350
James Riker, Jr.
New York 1852.

Rev. Abraham Polhemus, son of Abraham F., was born at Astoria, 1812; graduate of Rutgers, 1831; New Brunswick Theological Seminary, 1835; Trustee of Rutgers (elected) 1851; D. D. N. Y. U. 1856.

His son, Isaac Heyer Polhemus, missionary and pastor Presbyterian Church.

Manual of the Reformed Church p.454
Corwin
1922.

CLASS OF 1811

ABRAHAM F. POLHEMUS

Son of Abraham

He married in 1811, Cornelia, daughter of Jacobus Suydam.

He died in his 59th year, August 28, 1843, but his widow still occupies his estate at Hellgate.

Annals of Newtown, N. Y. p. 350
James Riker, Jr.
D. Fanshaw
New York
1852

Abraham F. Palhemus - 1811

1811

Abraham F. Polhemus